Having been brought up and educated in Hawkinge/Folkestone, I moved to Forelands Square in 1982 after marrying a local girl from Telegraph Road.

My wife and I have 4 children and 3 grandchildren; all of whom have attended Deal schools.

I originally trained as a nurse by the NHS and have worked closely with the NHS as an Orthopaedic supplier for 22 years. The NHS is especially close to my heart as is the excellent service provided by Deal Hospital, which I and all my family have used over the years.

I currently work for a children's Hospice. My hobbies include golf, fundraising for various charities including committee member for the Deal Memorial Bandstand and Sgts Mess Pantomime. I also enjoy spending time with family and friends.
