Richard JEACOCK

lives in Aycliffe, within a stones throw of Shakespeare Beach and TAP, Richard is actively engaged in the area, from being involved in the Immigration Minister's visit, helping residents get repairs to their houses, to taking the current councillor around looking at parking spaces, campaigning against TAP and more recently becoming an impromptu banksman.

Having worked in recruitment, Richard has helped many people find work over the years and now focuses these skills on helping people with their CV's and supporting a local charity within the ward as a trustee, having secured the funding to see it through Covid and come out starting up new activities for the wider community.

Richard wants to represent our community and make sure all our voices are heard, which is why he has recently setup a local neighbourhood watch in Aycliffe.
